NO. 99

Editor Shelton M. Sausley Treats His Readers to Interesting Items From the Capital.

FRANKFORT, FEB. 7.—The present session of the Kentucky General Assembly promises to be one of the "do-nothing" variety, if indications which have prevailed so far this session count for anything. With the session half gone, no bill of paramount importance to the State has been passed by either House, unless the Indeterminate Sentence bill, which permits the judge instead of the jury to sentence criminals, could be called such. The idea behind this measure is to secure reformation of the criminal and his release when he has proven himself qualified to associate with law-abiding people once more. This measure passed the Senate, but it will have rough sledding in the House. Many see in it an incentive for the cultivation of monumental hypocrisy and deception by every man who goes to the penitentiary. Another man who looks at the political side of things declared that it will beat for re-election every circuit judge in the State after he has had the sentencing of several courts of prisoners.

Of course principal interest during the entire session has been centered in the fate of the County Unit bill. After the adoption of the rules by the Senate, however, there need never have been any doubt as to that. The temperance forces allowed themselves to be bound and gagged in the rules without a murmur and when they came to themselves the liquor leaders were laughing at them.

The history of how the two local option bills have been buried in the Religion and Morals Committee of the Senate is too well known to need repetition. So many of the supposedly temperance Senators voted to kill the bills in that way that the temperance leaders are now doubtful whether they could muster a majority of votes for passage of the bill, even if it should be some hook or crook be disinterred and put up on its merits. No, there'll not be any temperance legislation at this session, and there are many good democrats who are very fearful of the effect of the strangling of the County Unit bills on the next State election. The democrats are so greatly in the majority in both Houses that they cannot escape responsibility for what is being done. The great pity is that the mass and rank and file of the party will have to bear the blame for what a few so-called leaders are doing here in the name of democracy.

Lincoln county's Representatives in both the upper and lower House are very popular here at the capital. No members ever look after their constituency with the same energy and fidelity that those from Lincoln do, and the result is that several of the workers from "home" are enjoying fat berths during the Legislative term. Jesse M. Alverson, as assistant clerk of the Senate, is the most active and efficient assistant in that body, while Joe T. Embury is very popular as doorkeeper of the House.

Senator "Took" Hubble has offered several bills in the Senate, which, if passed, will work for improvement of conditions in several respects. His measures are: An act giving men over 60 years of age the right to decline jury service; an act placing telephone, telegraph, express and pipe line companies under the jurisdiction of the State railroad commission; an act appropriating $20,400 for improvements at the School for the Deaf in Danville; an act requiring all life insurance companies in Kentucky to invest a part of their earnings in Kentucky securities or property.

Representative Shanks' bills are: An act amending the libel law, so as to give newspapers a chance to retract; an act authorizing railroads to carry on a ferry business; an act providing a uniform system of accounting for all counties; an act providing that only licensed lawyers shall look for land titles; an act appropriating $20,000 with annual maintenance for a school for the colored deaf at Danville; an act providing for registration and examination of trained nurses, and the Hubble act relating to jury service for men 60 years of age.

Mr. Shanks is recognized as one of the strongest men in the House, and he occupies the Speaker's chair more frequently than any other member when Speaker Wilson is absent. Many friends of the young Lincoln statesman say he will have practically a walk-over for the Speakership if he decides to come back next session. Others, however, are urging him to take advantage of his wide-spread popularity and get into the State races next year. They figure that he would be a mighty hard man to beat for Secretary of State, or clerk of the Court of Appeals. Mr. Shanks is taking very kindly the suggestions that are being made, but has not yet made up his mind as to what he will do.

The largest crowd of visitors that has come to Frankfort since the opening of the capitol was here Thursday when the monument to Governor Goebel was unveiled in the Frankfort cemetery. The weather was very bad, but still they came to do honor to the memory of the man who wrote such an important chapter in the history of the State. The services were beautifully impressive, the address of the occasion being delivered by Senator McCreary. Gov. Beckham acted as master of ceremonies and introduced him and it was a novel sight to see these two once bitter opponents for the Senatorial nomination meeting with clasped hands over the grave of the man they loved so well. Justus Goebel, the surviving Goebel brother, also spoke, and his prayer for the fulfillment of justice brought tears to many eyes.

Much regret was felt here that Judge M. C. Sausley was unable to be present and deliver an address, which he was invited to do by the program committee, but the illness of his son, Geo. B. Sausley, prevented his doing so. His address would have been an important addition to the day's ceremony. The Legislature adjourned over from Wednesday to Monday on account of the memorial services, and to-day resumed its grind.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

William Brown, an aged and respected citizen of Somerset, is dead.

Eugene Harmon's barn in Boyle burned. Three horses and a lot of hay went up in smoke.

W. A. Thomas, aged 40, and a leading druggist of Richmond, is dead of softening of the brain.

Sampson Miracle was sent up for two years from Bell county for striking and wounding Frank Basher.

Charles King, sent up for ten years in 1908 for murder in Rockcastle, was pardoned by Gov. Willson.

W. A. Sinkhorn, an L. & N. conductor whose home was at Junction City, died in Louisville Saturday.

Mrs. Amanda Cowan, relict of John Cowan, a pioneer of this county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Gover.—Somerset Times.

The passenger steamer, Rowena, struck an obstruction, piercing her hull, and sank in four feet of water at Ford's Island, 10 miles below Burnside. No one was injured, but the freight cargo was slightly damaged.

Thomas R. Griffin, of Somerset, has filed suit in the Franklin circuit court against the Goebel Reward Commissioners for $5,000, to which sum he says he is entitled for his services in securing much of the evidence that helped convict James Howard and Henry Youtsey for the assassination of Gov. Goebel.

A Lancaster dispatch says: Because of the low price offered by the buyers of hemp, the Garrard growers have concluded to pool their crops, and John M. Farra, of this city, has been chosen to represent the pool. He has succeeded, with difficulty, in pooling already about 85 per cent. of the crop, estimated at 750 acres.

Pineville people will vote on the question of opening saloons in the next month or so. The Sun is very much opposed to saloons there and very sensibly will make a hard fight to defeat the proposition. Editor Metcalf says: "Some $6,000 or $8,000 would be collected in license from the saloons and property values in the town would depreciate $100,000. Instead of one policeman, as we now have, it would require eight or ten to police the city. To pay these men, who must be given good salaries, as the job of arresting the class of criminals who are made by the saloons is a most dangerous one, and the extra cost of caring for prisoners would soon use up the license money and in the end the saloon keeper who dishes out the 'stuff' that necessitates this extra expense to the city, and who would be responsible for the era of crime which is sure to exist, will be the only one who will get any profit out of the saloons."

E. C. Walton has sold the Stanford Interior Journal to Shelton M. Sausley, of Frankfort, formerly of Stanford. Mr. Walton publishes the best country newspaper in the State and we shall miss him. He has been with that paper for 30 years, and during all that time we have read his paper either as an exchange or as a subscriber.—London Democrat, John Pearl, editor.

Staggers Skeptics.

That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. But great cures prove its a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

The ferryboat, Bettie Owen, was burned at Paducah, entailing a $15,000 loss.

Former County Judge R. O. Pace will start a republican paper at Greenville.

There are over 150 cases of small-pox in the Reel Foot Lake section of Tennessee.

An annex will be built to the Phoenix Hotel at Lexington that will cost $350,000.

Fireman C. B. Wilson, who was hurt in a Q. & C. wreck in Tennessee, died of his burns.

A son of the late Rudolph Leeds, of Richmond, Ind., has bought the Indianapolis Sun.

Squire James Flannery, first magistrate of Campbell county, is dead at Newport, aged 101.

William T. Fisher shot to death Ethel Barnard, his mistress, and then killed himself, in New York City.

The medical supply department of the United States army was burned in New York, the loss being nearly $1,000,000.

Thomas L. Reed suicided at Winchester because his wife brought suit for divorce, alleging cruelty and drunkenness.

The Lexington Street Railway Co. suffered a $50,000 loss by the burning of a barn in which were a number of fine cars.

George D. Sparks, formerly a clerk in the general offices of the L. & N. railroad, dropped dead in the courthouse in Louisville.

A. F. Carrithers, a prominent business man of Lexington, is dead at Indianapolis. He was taken to a hospital there some time ago. He was 70 years old.

The confession of Bingham Bryan, a Negro, cleared up the mystery of the murder of three women in Savannah, Ga. The crime was committed December 10 last.

The city council of Lexington has passed an ordinance making it a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 and a jail sentence of not less than 15 days for carrying a pistol.

The trustees of Kentucky State University by a unanimous vote elected Judge Henry S. Barker, now a member of the Court of Appeals, president of the University to succeed James K. Patterson.

"Because he wanted to see the horses run," John Byers, a teamster, confessed that he set the fire that destroyed the building of the Evansville, Ind., Journal-News, and had caused other fires in the business district.

State Inspector of Mines C. J. Norwood and his two assistants reported that the disaster at the Browder mine was caused by the explosion of powder. They allege in the report that they are in possession of the keg which contained the powder.

Mrs. Mary Blair Brokaw was granted a separation from her husband, W. Gould Brokaw, a millionaire, and was awarded alimony of $15,000 a year. The decision was handed down in the Supreme Court of Mineola, L. I., by Justice Putnam. The separation was granted on the ground of desertion.

Syrus Drake, of Minnesota, was arrested in New York by the Federal authorities. Drake is specifically accused of having obtained $30 from Fanny Cagie, of Hodgenville, Ky., to prosecute the claim to the Drake estate; $150 from J. C. Drake, of Whitefield, Ky., and $10 from a man named Miller, of Corsicana, Tex.

A legal clash developed in the sensational Swope case in Kansas City. It came when, at the request of the attorney for Dr. B. C. Hyde, the circuit court at Independence, Mo., dismissed the first suit brought recently by the physician against John G. Paxton, executor of the Swope estate, asking $100,000 for the alleged slander, and enjoining attorneys from taking depositions.

Wireless telegraphy saved the lives of the captain and crew of the steamer Kentucky. The ship's signal of distress was picked up at Cape Hatteras and in a few minutes the steamship Alamo's reply was heard. The Alamo reached the Kentucky before 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and took off the crew of 47 men. The Kentucky was sinking rapidly and was expected to go to the bottom before midnight.

Life on Panama Canal

Has had one frightful drawback—malaria trouble that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," writes Wm. A. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had good health ever since." Cures Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and prevents typhoid. 50c. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Wallace Logan Nourse, a prominent Southern Presbyterian minister and grandson of the late United States Senator William Logan, died of heart failure at his home in Hopkinsville. He had held important pastoral charges in Indiana and Kentucky.

The new pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. D. H. Scanlan, was installed Sunday with appropriate ceremonies. Dr. Gray McAllister, of Louisville, Dr. J. E. Ballou, of Middlesboro, and Rev. J. V. Logan, of Somerset, all took part in the service.—Richmond Register.

Rev. C. R. Blain, of Louisville, preached two excellent sermons at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Our people are greatly pleased with Mr. Blain, both as a preacher and a gentleman. Prof. Paul Deemer, made the services more enjoyable with his cornet, which he plays nicely.

MATRIMONIAL.

James M. Spaw and Miss Levenia Williams were made one at G. T. Williams' on the 6th.

Charles Hodge, aged 23, and a widower, and Miss Lou Wetlington, sweet 16, will be married at Moreland on the 13th.

MR. AND MRS. HUGH TERHUNE were taken completely by surprise this week by the marriage of their daughter, Miss Virginia Terhune, and Dr. Leslie A. Rice. The ceremony was performed on Monday evening in Louisville in the parlor of the First Christian church, Dr. E. L. Powell officiating.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Strange, isn't it, that such a pressure should be brought to bear by the liquor interests at Frankfort upon the members of the Legislature to induce them not to pass the County Unit bill, when same interests contend that under prohibition more liquor is sold than under the license system. Somewhat anomalous, to say the least of it. But there seems to be one or two Senators, notwithstanding the protests of their constituents, who do not need to have the pressure brought to bear upon them in order to induce them to vote wet, notwithstanding those who elected them were led to believe otherwise.—Advocate. Wonder to what Senators our neighbor has reference?

Fire in the McKissick Hotel at Reno, Nev., routed 100 guests from their rooms in great disorder. August Schaefer, fireman of the hotel, was burned to death. The guests, many of whom were from the East, scrambled down the fire escapes and none was injured.

The Interior Journal.

SHELTON M. SAUFLEY,
OWNER.

HON. HARVEY HELM,

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

WE join the State Journal in opposition to the issue of $500,000 in State bonds, or for any amount. A bonded debt is a hard thing to get rid of, whereas interest bearing warrants, which were authorized by law during the Bradley administration, could be taken up at any time the State has the money. It is singular that such devices are only necessary under republican rule. The interest bearing warrants were issued right and left during Bradley's incumbency and now the State is in a similar hole. The State Journal significantly says that the democratic administration of eight years never issued any because it always had money enough to pay its debts and the debts of preceding administrations. Let the democratic Legislature hesitate long and then refuse to authorize the bond issue. There are plenty of revenues to meet even the great increase of expenditures under Willson, if not frittered away in keeping useless soldiers in the field and other unnecessary expenses. Besides it will be a good idea to let the Willson administration take care of itself.

CINCINNATI is maintaining its reputation of being the Paris of America. The Enquirer says that there were eight murders, the majority of the victims being women who were frightfully butchered, and seven suicides in that city during January. There may be excuses for the suicides, who probably had no where else to go, and didn't want to grin and endure the pain, but it is horrible to think of helpless women being butchered to death. That species of murder is peculiarly indigenous to the North. We rarely hear of the murder of a woman in the South unless by a Negro fiend. They are safe from the hands of white men here.

HON. A. OWSLEY, STANLEY, who is closely related to the Baileys and Owsleys of this county, was nominated for Congress Tuesday, beating his two opponents together over 4,000 majority. He carried every county in the Second district, except the two in which his opponents lived, and came near carrying them. His next will be Mr. Stanley's fourth term, and he has made so good it is likely that he will be a Congressional fixture for some time. Editor Givens, of the Henderson Gleaner, and Lawyer Clements, of Owensboro, are nip and tuck for second place in about the poorest race any men ever ran.

SENATOR DANIEL, the one-legged Confederate veteran, seems to have a hold on the people of Virginia that is impossible to break. He has just been renominated for another term in the United States Senate, a continuous performance that goes on every six years, and will continue until the grand old man joins his beloved comrades in the great beyond.

UNTIL this month the government has always let the printing of postal cards to contract. Now there has been installed in its printing office at Washington machinery capable of turning out 3,500,000 cards a day. It is hoped that this will give the over paid and excessive number of printers something to do to help earn their salaries.

THE grand jury at Jersey City in search of evidence to indict the beef trust for conspiracy to force up the prices of necessities, found 36,000,000 eggs and over 100,000 pounds of poultry in one cold storage establishment. It would be a good joke on the conspirators if the whole mess was found to be unfit for use.

THE Harrodsburg Herald says at the lowest calculation seven out of every 10 persons are for the extension of the County Unit, which was blocked by two men, and talks out plainly in meeting about it. The worst of it is the democratic party will have to bear the odium of the failure of its Senators to keep promises.

AN Arizona woman, who has just died aged 116, used tobacco for 110 years. What is worse looking than a shriveled old woman of that age, except a mummy? Unless they want to live always and look like that we would advise our young lady friends to cut it out—cut out the filthy weed.

It only took the National Senate 40 minutes to pass the army appropriation bill, carrying $95,440,557. This is at the rate of $2,386,014 a minute and is going some even for a billion dollar country.

A BOSTON woman says that kissing is overdone there. As we hardly believe anybody would kiss a native Bostoner, we suspect the reference is to the strangers "within their midst."

PRESIDENT TAFT complains that the White House is lonely. If he will order the doors opened to admit all office seekers, he'll soon find it lively enough.

MORE than half of the Legislative session is gone and yet no law has been passed and sent to the governor. However, this may not be a bad thing. We have a sufficiency of laws now and judging from the character of the bulk of the bills offered, they are not very necessary. The Legislature is a decided nuisance anyway, which we ought to be glad to get rid of as cheaply as possible.

THE democrat elected to succeed DeArmond, of the 12th Missouri district, who was burned to death, got 3,750 majority, a gain of 1,650 over the last election. The "Show Me" State is showing that her Congressman, Champ Clark, is right in his prediction that the next Congress will be strongly democratic.

POLITICAL.

Representative William C. Lovering, of Massachusetts, died at his home in Washington, aged 75 years.

The nomination of H. W. Lockridge as postmaster of Mt. Sterling was sent to the Senate by the President.

Edwin M. Lee, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., was chosen republican State chairman of Indiana at a meeting of the State Committee.

Gov. Charles E. Hughes, of New York, has signified his intention of voting to hold the next Governor's conference at Frankfort.

Medical Director Charles F. Stokes was nominated to be Surgeon General of the navy, to succeed Rear Admiral P. M. Rixey, who retires voluntarily.

John J. Vertrees, of Nashville, a leader of the Tennessee bar, a democrat, and a warm personal friend of President Taft, has been asked to take charge of the case for Ballinger in the Ballinger-Pinchot Congressional investigation.

Senator Smoot's amendment to the postal savings bank bill prohibiting the withdrawal for investment of postal funds from banks in which they might be deposited so long as the banks are willing to pay 2 1/2 per cent. interest, was agreed to in a slightly modified form by the Senate.

Former Circuit Judge W. C. Bell, of Harrodsburg, dropped in on a number of the democratic Congressmen. It is reported that Mr. Bell is planning to make the race for the democratic nomination for Attorney General and that he is well qualified. Therefore his projected candidacy for Congress is strenuously denied by him.—Washington dispatch to Louisville Times.

Here and There.

Key Bros' barn near Mayfield burned, destroying a lot of fine stock and lots of feed.

The Jeffries-Johnson fight will be held in San Francisco, says John B. Gleason, one of the promoters.

Walter J. McDonald, who defied the sheriff's posse at Walker, Minn., when he barricaded himself in his house after shooting Howard Sexton, suicided by shooting.

Mrs. Rosa Gauman, wife of a wealthy dairyman living in the suburbs of Louisville, was assaulted in daylight by a Negro, who was later caught at Cecilia. She is in a dangerous condition. The Negro is in the Louisville jail.

The city council of Winchester assessed the Burley Tobacco Society for $300,000 of property for 1907, the same for 1908 and $500,000 for 1909, alleging that the assessors had omitted to assess them. The city attorney was directed to take the proper steps for collecting it.

In Memory of Little Dora Forrest McClary.

"Safe in the arms of Jesus,"
Our little babe now sleeps,
Oh, how tenderly He holds her,
And yet, her mother weeps.

Weeps for her little darling's presence
Longs for her silenced voice;
Her sorrow is great indeed to bear,
But God will take His choice.

The angels needed a playmate,
There was none more perfect and fair,
Than this little one, who from us was taken,
And carried to them up there.

There in the Heavenly kingdom,
Where all is joy and love,
May the mother and sister be gathered at last,
And so unite the family above.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas on Jan. 10, 1910, it pleased the Supreme Commander of the universe to call from the walks of mortality our worthy and beloved brother, Sir Knight R. M. Rigney, and whereas this tent has lost a most loyal member, the county an energetic and upright citizen and the family a devoted husband and father, therefore be it resolved by the members of Kings Mountain Tent No. 110

1st That we extend to the bereaved family our profound sympathy and assure them that we weep with them in their irreparable loss.

2nd That we drape our charter and wear the badge of mourning for 30 days.

3rd That a page in the records of this tent be set apart as a memorial and these resolutions be spread thereon.

4th That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and one to the INTERIOR JOURNAL for publication.

S. B. Chevillet, W. F. Lane, W. M. Meeks, committee.

Editor Ed C. Walton announces that he has sold the INTERIOR JOURNAL to Shelton M. Saulley, who is a splendid newspaper man, and will take charge about March 1st. We are sorry to lose Ed Walton from the business, but we are glad that it is said, he is likely to go and enjoy one of the finest "imitations" of Paradise—a beautiful farm which he owns in Lincoln county. That ought to give a taste of temporary "glory" that would cause him constant longing for the fruition of Eternal Glory, which we hope he may attain at last, after having been plagued in newspaperdom for about a third of a century.—Somerset Republican. Many thanks for your good wishes for our predecessor, Ed. Hanson, but if he owns a farm in Lincoln county or elsewhere he has not been apprised of the fact.

Struck A Rich Mine.

S. W. Bonds, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, carrying upward of $3,000,000, has been agreed upon by a House subcommittee on appropriations and will be acted upon by the full committee soon.

Fire, believed to have originated from a cigar stump thrown into an improvised cuspidor, damaged the bonded warehouse of the Louisville Public Warehouse Co. to the extent of $80,000.
